What is the Send a Child to Hucklow Fund

all about?

SACH is a charity which helps children to have a holiday in the countryside. The children SACH helps have very difficult lives, and without the money raised by SACH, they would not get the chance to have a holiday at all. We all know that holidays are important - they help us to relax and have a break from things that worry us. We often learn new things and we have chance to have fun.

Why does SACH need your help?

It costs about £350 to pay for a holiday for one child, and we have to raise enough money to run holidays for 13 groups of children each year. That's about £60,000. We can only raise this much money if lots of people help.

What can you do to help?

Kids are great at fundraising, because they have lots of good ideas. Even raising a small amount of money helps, because the small amounts soon build up!

- Perhaps you could donate your pocket money for a week and get your friends to do the same.
- Maybe you could organise a sponsored event and get your friends and family to support you (Mums and Dads always like a 'sponsored silence'!)

There are lots of other fundraising ideas on the next page, but whatever you do, have fun!
